

WORLD YWCA DAY

Round-The-World Breakfast

Tuesday 24th April 2007
7:15 am for 7:30 am - 9:00 am
Ayers House Restaurant,
288 North Terrace, Adelaide

Since 1855, the YWCA has been empowering women and girls to lead change. This work is driven by the passion, faith and vitality of women, in 122 countries, who will not stop until the world is a better place for all people.

From Australia to Argentina, England to Ethiopia, Estonia to El Salvador, connect with YWCA women in 122 countries for the breakfast event of the year.

The World YWCA Day Round -The -World Breakfast is a chance to pay tribute to women's leadership and to ensure that women's leadership will be well resourced for generations to come.

Our Guest Speaker

Katherine Leane, People Living with HIV/AIDS (SA) Inc.

Katherine is an openly HIV positive women and mother who has lived with HIV for 18 years. Katherine will share her honest and personal story around her struggles and journey of living with HIV and its impact on her family life.
