

Women's Health Statewide in association with RespondSA

presents a free Friday Forum on 25th May from 3–5pm

Through the Looking Glass: A community partnership in parenting

Come along and hear Jude Hill talk about this federally funded project. Jude will talk about theories of attachment and how she believes they fit with feminist frameworks. She will illustrate the positive effects of this approach on communities with case examples.

Light refreshments are provided

Bookings on 8239 9600 are essential as places are limited.

Women's Health Statewide

WHS is a statewide women's health service that works within a feminist framework. We use a woman-centred approach that values women's experience and knowledge. Working with women subjected to childhood sexual abuse is a major area of our work and includes: a range of resources and training for workers in addressing violence and abuse and its effects, such as the Maternal Health and Childhood Sexual Abuse Project, The Care Of Adult Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse in General Practice Project, Sibling Sexual Abuse Project, and many more.

For further information contact Marg Rowntree 8239 9600

Respond SA, Adult Childhood Sexual Abuse Services

Provides a range of services for women and men, aged 16 years and over, who are survivors of childhood sexual abuse. Support is also provided for family members or friends of survivors. A free & confidential service provided by Relationships Australia (SA) and funded by the Government of South Australia.

Offers: telephone support, counselling (outreach services available), groupwork programs, advocacy, support through legal processes & training programs for service providers.
