

An Australian Government Initiative

CONNECT TO
YOUR FUTURE
Career Advice Australia

Kirrilie Smout is a psychologist, speaker and author who specialises in adolescence. She has presented to and counselled over 10,000 teenagers, parents and teachers in public, independent and catholic schools and colleges across Australia. She has won awards such as the Australian Psychological Prize (1994), The Queens Trust for Young Australians Award (2001) and The National Speakers Association Rising Star Award (2001). She has authored a book (in its 2nd Edition) about teenagers called The Years That Count.

Career Generation

Parents, educators, youth workers, employers and community members are invited to attend the following FREE events:

Senior School:

A Guide for Parents
7pm - Monday June 4th
Flinders University
Law & Commerce Lecture Room
Car Park 4

- Tips and ideas on helping your student through Year 11 or 12
- Most common pitfalls in dealing with senior students
- Assisting with homework—without nagging!

The Next Generation

Understanding Gen Y
7pm - Tuesday June 5th

Lutheran Centre, Victor Harbor

- Baby Boomers & Gen Y: What's changed & what's stayed the same
- Beyond 'I'm fine': Ten tips to get young people talking
- Creating relationship: Managing and parenting young people

Supporting Teens in Tough Times:

Skills, tips and ideas to work effectively with young people.

7pm - Thursday June 28th

Noarlunga Theatre

- Understanding developmental & generational differences between adults & teens
- Supporting teens to make positive life & career decisions
- Effectively communicating & building rapport with young people and helping them feel good about themselves

Bookings Essential

Phone Cheryl Spark: 8207 3814

Email: spark.cheryl@saugov.sa.gov.au

