what are Family Relationship Education and Skills Training Services all about?

The Families in Focus Family Relationship Education and Skills Training Services can design groups and training opportunities for community and business addressing a range of areas that impact on individuals and groups of people.

Where possible, we endeavour to include community as peer educators and will promote to businesses the valuable tools that address the ever changing environment for the workforce today. Our skilled facilitators are able to address issues affecting your relationships as well as provide pathways to our other programs and other community supports.

what we do

Family and Relationship Education and Skills Training can provide groups on following topics, just to name a few:

- Grandparents as primary care providers
- Adolescent Family Violence
- Transition from employment to retirement
- The impact of violence in the home
- Positive Parenting
- Relationship breakdown — Let's move on

We can design programs to fit specifically for your community or business group. Call our Family and Relationship educator today, to discuss your specific needs ## is there a cost?

Family and Relationship Education and Skill Development programs are fee-based, depending on the nature of the program, please call for a more specific quote.
