

cnmer

'Introduction to Alcohol, Drugs & Mental Health Co-morbidity'

24 September 2008

8.45 am to 5.00 p.m.

At Flinders Medical Centre, Bedford Park Level 7, Room 120 A&B

Aim: To promote awareness and increase understanding of mental health and alcohol and other drug Co-morbidity, and foster networking and collaboration amongst a diverse workforce.

Eligibility: Government and non-government health, welfare and other relevant services including: hospital and community based nurses, doctors, social workers, community workers, GPs and GP nurses, Aboriginal health and community workers, mental health and alcohol and drug workers, criminal justice and other interested groups.

Content:

- Update on accessing service
- Basic Neurobiology of Addiction
- Pharmacotherapy's
- Common links between Mental Health Disorders and Substance Use
- Understanding Alcohol Related Brain Injury
- Case Presentations
- Case Studies
- Sharing Care and Networking

Applications: Please fill out registration form and send to:
Drug and Alcohol Services South Australia
Executive Assistant to Lynette Cusack Fax: 8274 3320
DASSA Short Courses
161 Greenhill Rd
Parkside SA 5063

Cost: $50.00 (GST Incl) which includes all course materials and refreshments
Free for DASSA Staff

Closing date: Thursday 4 September 2008,
Or unless booked out earlier - Seats strictly limited

Contacts: Course Content ONLY
Eugenie Chambers – 8201 5080
eugenie.chambers@fmc.sa.gov.au

Applications ONLY
Phone: 8274 3386

